POLICE BLOTTER-December2017

On December 5, officers responded to a vehicle crash. A vehicle that was stopped in traffic was struck from behind by another vehicle. The at-fault driver was cited.

On December 6, an officer on patrol observed a vehicle resting on its roof in the middle of the street. It was determined that the operator lost control, struck a parked vehicle, and flipped over. The operator was transported to the hospital for a concussion and abrasions. The operator was also cited.

On December 13, officers responded to a vehicle crash. A vehicle made a left turn in front of an oncoming vehicle, resulting in a collision. The at-fault driver was cited.

On December 14, a resident reported being stalked by a former boyfriend. Charges were filed against the person for Menacing by Stalking.

On December 22, officers responded to the report of an unruly juvenile. It was determined that the juvenile had attempted to assault his mother, and continued to act in an aggressive manner toward officers. Officers took him into custody and transported him to the juvenile detention center.

On December 25, officers responded to the report of a structure fire. A garage bay and a vehicle were destroyed in the fire, which is being investigated by Bloom Township Fire Department.

On December 26, officers responded to the report of a domestic dispute between two sisters. It was determined that one of the sisters had a warrant for her arrest, and was inside the residence with her boyfriend, who had just been released from prison and was on parole. Officers entered the residence and, after searching, located the female and her boyfriend hiding behind a large box in a basement crawl space. Both individuals were arrested and taken to jail.
