

Larry Stephens is a graduate of Capital University Law School and has been the Lithopolis Magistrate for over two years. He is a former Columbus Police Officer and Franklin County Assistant Prosecutor.

Over his legal career, he has performed magistrate duties in other jurisdictions and taught legal-based courses at local colleges.