

Michael K. Fultz is a Westerville resident with more than 30 years of experience in municipal government. He is an attorney with Metz, Bailey and McLoughlin in Westerville, focusing on municipal law, business formation, estate planning, probate and litigation. He also serves as Westerville's prosecutor.

He is a graduate of Westerville South High School, earning his law degree at Capital University Law School and an MBA from The Ohio State University.

Prior to entering the practice of law, he served as a firefighter in the Columbus Division of Fire, retiring as a Battalion Chief. Prior to that, he worked in residential construction and volunteered part time on the Westerville Emergency Squad. He was one of Westerville's original paramedics.

He has served on the Westerville Public Library Board of Trustees for over ten years and is also the Chairman of the Board of Directors for the CME Federal Credit Union.